GCSE RS Renewed

London: 16 June 2017, 9:30am–3:30pm

Level: Secondary, KS4

Suitable for: Teachers of GCSE RS looking to deepen their knowledge and teaching of the new GCSE specifications. Perfect for both NQTs and non-specialists as well as experienced RS teachers.

This one-day GCSE training course has been re-shaped to meet the requirements of the finalised specifications. All four English exam boards are catered for (AQA, OCR, Eduqas and Edexcel). We focus solely on Christianity, considering how teachers can manage the increased levels of subject knowledge while employing creative and engaging lesson approaches. This course will support your subject knowledge of the three topics below and offer you space to think about how you can engineer meaningful and challenging learning experiences for your class, create a sense of coherence and ask questions that really matter.

Outline of the day

Session 1: 9.30am–10.00am
Introduction to the finalised specifications.

Session 2: 10.00am–11:15am
Trinity (Christianity, beliefs and teachings).

Coffee

Session 3: 11.45am–1.00pm
Salvation (Christianity, beliefs and teachings).

Lunch

Session 4: 2.00pm–3:15pm
Relationships (Christianity, themes).

Conclusions and evaluation

Trainer: Kate Christopher

Kate has worked as a national RE adviser for RE Today since 2014, developing training in GCSE and A Levels, as well as British Values and community cohesion with regards to RE. Before joining RE Today she was a classroom teacher for 11 years in three very different schools, and served as Head of RE in two of these. Kate is currently working on a PhD in Philosophy of Education, focussing on multicultural and anti-racist issues in RE.

In addition to the training you will also receive:

- a folder of resources used on the course
- online access to a selection of relevant materials
