

SMSC & British Values in Primary RE

London: 16 May 2017, 9:30am-3:45pm

Level: Primary, EYFS-KS2

Suitable for: head teachers, RE subject leaders and other interested teachers. Great for both newly qualified as well as experienced teachers and any staff with a responsibility for RE.

There will be a focus on how primary schools can respond creatively to Ofsted's latest inspection requirements for SMSC, preparing for life in modern Britain with opportunities to ask questions about how the ethos and values of your school promote this with 4-11s. Gain confidence in maximising the opportunities for spiritual development. RE will be the focus of many examples given on the day, though the wider curriculum will also be reflected as SMSC and British Values are a whole-school priority.

Outline of the day

Session 1: 9.30am-10.45am

- What does an SMSC-focused curriculum do for pupils?
- Where do British Values fit into the classroom?

Coffee

Session 2: 11.05am-12:45pm

- Spiritual and cultural: six examples of good learning

Lunch

Session 3: 1:30pm-2:30pm

- Social and moral development: six examples of good learning

Session 4: 2:30pm-3.45pm

- British Values in RE - what does the Ofsted framework say?

Conclusions and evaluation

Trainer: Fiona Moss

National RE Adviser, Editor and NATRE executive officer. Fiona is a primary specialist who writes and edits a range of RE Today publications. Having been the RE and SACRE curriculum adviser for Leicester City, she is now involved in creating locally agreed syllabuses for many LAs. Fiona delivers training around the country, and is passionate about supporting and equipping primary colleagues, and building their confidence in the RE classroom.

Fiona Moss was a primary teacher and RE subject leader for many years before joining the RE Today team.
