

The RE update: a day course for every secondary RE teacher

York: 4 December 2017, 9:30am–3:45pm

Level: Secondary, KS3, KS4

Suitable for: All teachers of secondary RE from NQTs to Heads of RE, in all kinds of school.

This wide-ranging new course from Lat Blaylock will present fresh classroom ideas and materials to meet the needs of teachers of RE around some key current issues in the subject, including:

- RE, SMSCD and British Values
- GCSE learning ideas for Christian and Muslim belief
- Current thinking on KS3 assessment and achievement
- Building the status of the subject in your school

The course runs from 9.30 – 3.45, and is designed for all teachers of RE from NQT to subject leader, in all kinds of school. Delegates will receive a complete package of print course materials (including a 'state of the nation' RE report) and access to digital resources online. If you can only attend one RE course this year, then the 'RE Update' aims to meet your needs.

Trainer: Lat Blaylock

Lat is editor of REtoday magazine and has written many RE resources published by RE Today, including Picturing Christianity, Big, Big Questions (a package for music in RE) and Spiritual Engagement (a folder of ideas for 16–19 RE days). He taught RE, Humanities and PSHE in Leicester for 11 years.

Since joining RE Today Services his work is wide-ranging and varied, and includes advising teachers, schools, SACREs, Dioceses and Local Authorities. His CPD training courses attract several thousand teachers every year, covering themes from poetry, art and creativity to assessment, GCSE and curriculum planning. He also runs day conferences for gifted and talented pupils and for 16–19s. He has made 7 series of RE broadcasts with the BBC, including the award winning 'My Life My Religion' (2015). Lat was the specialist writer for the RE Council's 2013 national RE curriculum framework.
